“But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.” Psalm 86:15

Compassion, longsuffering, mercy and truth – God is ALL of these things and more The holy scriptures say that God’s compassions fail not and that His mercies are new every morning, Lamentations 3:22 KJV. What great JOY this brings to us as God’s children! But do we bring this same great joy to others by being compassionate and merciful to them? Or are we like the servant in Matthew 18:22-35? He was only looking out for himself! Note that all of his debt was forgiven, because that is what he asked for. And when all of his debt was forgiven, he did not return that same favor to his servant. Where was his compassion? God’s compassion is like the king who forgives all of our debt, should we not do the same? (Please take time to read this story and let God give you new understanding about His compassion and His mercy.)

As always, I looked up the meaning for compassion and this is what the dictionary says - sympathetic consciousness of other’s distress together with a desire to alleviate it. Most of the time I believe we may be aware of someone else’s need but don’t really have a desire to do anything to alleviate it. The synonym for compassion is pity, which means to have sympathetic sorrow for one suffering, distressed, or unhappy. The world all around us is filled with hurting, hopeless and lost people – and yet I don’t see much compassion. Why? Because our lives are centered around ME, not God and not others. We need to stop and examine our hearts and our priorities and adjust them to put God first, others second and ourselves last – that spells JOY! (Jesus – Others – Yourself) I encourage you to start reaching out in compassion and let the world see Jesus living in you! Be Blessed ~ Donette

Nexus Fund Update – “Thank You” to all who have sent in donations to help us reach toward the $10,000 goal to purchase the Nexus machine, which will help to record and store more programs and spots for airing. The total donations received at this time are $6,962 – we still need $3,038 to make our goal. If you would like to make a donation for this special need, you can send your donation to WTJR, 222 North 6th Street, Quincy, IL. 62301. Please mark on your check in the memo space – Nexus Fund.

WTJR Mission Outreaches – We now have a drop off place for the shoes for “The Shoeman”, which helps to build water wells in Kenya and for the clothing for the homeless men at The Dream Center in St.Louis, MO. Drop these items off at 615 Vermont Street, Quincy, IL. on Tuesday from 2 to 5 PM. Please do no drop off at the WTJR building. If you have any questions call 1-217-228-1616. WTJR also collects aluminum pop tabs to help support a girl in an orphanage in India and still collect stamps – leave at least ½ inch of the envelope around the stamps. The stamps are used to purchase school books to be used by missionaries all over the world. My prayer is that the children learn to read so they can read the BIBLE! And finally, WTJR will be collecting shoeboxes again this year for Friends of Wild Olive Branch Ministries to give to the children in Mexico at Christmas.
